In Memoriam

Arthur Gillespie, who served the New Monroe Community schools as custodian . . . a conscientious employee, a friend to students, a true gentleman, and a christian example.

Dedication

We, The Senior Class of 1964, dedicate our annual to the group which makes our school the great one which it is, the students of the New Monroe Community School.

It is you who create the atmosphere of our school. It is you who set the standards of our school. You are the school.

We thank you, the students, for being what you are--for making the school which we will always love and never forget.

The next day is never so good as the night before.

LANA MUNSON
I never do anything I shouldn't.

DAVE MEYERS
I would study to live, but not live to study.
